Charles Wells, 2001.

1. Lord at thy tem - ple we ap-pear, As happy Sime-on came, And hope to meet our Sa - viour here; O make our joys the same!

2. With what di-vine and vast de-light The good old-man was filled, When fond - ly in his a - ged arms, He held the ho - ly Child.

3. Now I can leave this world, he cried, Be-hold thy ser-vant dies. I've seen thy great - sal - va - tion, Lord; Now close my peace - ful eyes.
