

Vernon Center. C.M.

1. How long, dear savior, O how long shall we be left alone? When shall our hearts break forth in song And say the Lord is come? And say the Lord is come? How long shall we

2. We long to see thy smiling face, We long to hear thy voice We long to see a new born race Aloud in thee rejoice, Aloud in thee rejoice. O gracious Go

1. How long, dear savior, O how long Shall we be left alone? When shall our hearts break forth in song And say the Lord is come And say the Lord is come? How long shall we

2. We long to see thy smiling face, We long to hear thy voice. We long to see a new born race Aloud in thee rejoice, Aloud in thee rejoice. O gracious Go willows hung Our harps by Babel's stream Once we rejoiced a loud and sang, And Jesus was our theme And Jesus was our theme.

O gracious God appear this day Make known thy power and grace, and let thy word of truth, we pray Fill every heart with praise. praise.

How long shall we on willows hung Our harps by Babel's stream? Once we rejoiced a loud and sang And Jesus was our theme.

appear this day, make known thy power and grace And let thy word of truth, thy truth we pray, Fill every heart with praise Fill every heart with praise. O praise.